These schools have ensured that all children in their schools are taught by high quality effective teachers. The National Foundation for Educational Research (NFER) report also identified improving the quality teaching as the most effective way to improve outcomes for all. Targeted support
Action	Intended outcome	What's the evidence and rationale for this choice?	How will you make sure it's implemented well?	Staff lead	When will you review this?
Targeted academic support to ensure disadvantaged learners close the academic gap between themselves and their peers.	Prompt tailored support provides a positive impact on disadvantaged children who are not making good progress.	In their studies the EEF found that targeted academic support including how to link structured one-to-one or small group intervention to classroom teaching, is likely to be a key component of an effective Pupil Premium strategy. Evidence from NFER also found that for those an effective model in closing the gap for disadvantaged children was quality first teaching followed by small group remediation for those who need it and then one to one tutoring for the few children who have not succeeded in the less-intensive services.	Structured interventions Small group tuition One-to-one support Interventions delivered by class teachers or trained LSAs/HLTAs in specific areas of the curriculum.
